

It's 'Raining Awards' for Carnival Australia Brands in Latest Cruise Critic Awards

December 13, 2017

It has been raining awards today for Carnival Australia with five of its iconic cruise lines featuring in the prestigious 2017 Cruise Critic Editors' Picks Awards for Australian cruising.

Carnival Australia brand lines claimed nine awards including three separate category wins for home brand P&O Cruises with best new ship, best ship refurbishment and best onboard nightlife, and two each for Princess Cruises and Carnival Cruise Line.

"We welcome the awards for so many of our brands in a year of a number of milestones for our Australian business including P&O Cruises' eighty-fifth anniversary of cruising from Australia, Princess Cruises' more than 40 years and Carnival Cruise Line's five years," said Carnival Australia President Sture Myrmell.

The Cruise Critic Australia category wins for Carnival Australia brands are as follows:

Best New Ship – P&O Cruises' Pacific Explorer
Best Service – Carnival Cruise Line
Best Value for Money – Carnival Cruise Line
Best Shore Excursions – Princess Cruises
Best Dining – Princess Cruises
Best for Solo Travellers – Holland America Line
Best for Luxury – Seabourn Cruise Line
Best Ship Refurbishment – P&O Cruises' Pacific Dawn
Best Nightlife – P&O Cruises

"The strength of our varied brands is that we offer something for everyone across the cruising spectrum," Mr Myrmell said. "It is a great thrill to be recognised with awards across so many categories for our brands."

Media contact:
David Jones, +61 2 8326 4111