

Costa Cruises Inaugurates The 2015 Season From Trieste: First Call Of The Costa Mediterranea

April 10, 2015

Genoa, 10 April 2015 – Today, the Costa Mediterranea (85,700 gross tonnage and 2,680 total guests) kicks off Costa Cruises 2015 season in Trieste (www.costacruise.com).

The Costa Mediterranea arrived in Trieste after a transatlantic cruise that departed on 20 March from Miami. She will leave tomorrow, to start her season of cruises in the Adriatic Sea. In total, between today and tomorrow, Costa Mediterranea will carry in Trieste more than 3600 guests, of which about 1400 disembarking and 2200 embarking, coming from different countries, including Italian, Swiss, French, German, Austrian and Japanese.

From 11 April to 21 November 2015 Costa Mediterranea will depart from Trieste every Saturday, for a total of 33 calls. The ship will propose two different 7-day itineraries, visiting the most beautiful destinations in Croatia, Montenegro and Greece, and, starting 9 May, to Venice.
