

Carnival Spirit Departs Sydney For Dry Dock In Singapore

May 3, 2018

Carnival Spirit sails out of Sydney Heads today, embarking on a 19 day cruise to Singapore, ahead of her dry dock later this month.

Carnival is investing into upgrades that will provide holidaymakers a range of new family friendly entertainment features offering new spaces for kids activities onboard. This includes a new arts and crafts area named SoulPlay, and a brand new entertainment area for teenagers, Warehouse Arcade.

Cruise lovers hoping to be some of the very first to enjoy these upgrades can sail on Carnival Spirit's 19 day Singapore to Sydney cruise, departing on 6 June 2018.

This 19 day cruise will sail to some of Carnival's rare ports of call such as Phuket, Bali (Benoa), Darwin and Airlie Beach, before arriving back to Sydney.

For the remainder of 2018, Carnival Spirit will sail from Sydney to stunning destinations such as New Caledonia, Vanuatu and Moreton Island.

For more information or to book, visit carnival.com.au or your travel agent or call 13 31 94.

About Carnival Cruise Line:

Carnival Cruise Line is the largest cruise line in the world with almost five million guests travelling every year. The cruise line has two ships deployed in Australia, including Carnival Spirit – currently the largest and newest cruise ship home ported year round in Australia. Sister ship Carnival Legend will return to Australia in October 2018 following her Northern Hemisphere summer season cruising Alaska. Carnival Splendor will join the Australian Carnival fleet in December 2019 and become the newest and largest ship home ported year-round in Australia. With 45 activities to enjoy each day, Carnival's ships offer fun-loving families and couples fun, memorable holidays at great value.