

Carnival Corporation's OceanView™ Channel Features World Cup Host Countries with Launch of Themed Travel Programming

June 12, 2018

With 2018 FIFA World Cup starting this week, first themed collection will feature host Russia and past host countries
World's largest leisure travel company adds themed, curated collections to OceanView, the first digital streaming travel channel for land and sea

MIAMI, June 12, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Just in time for the kickoff of the world's most popular sporting event, Carnival Corporation & plc (NYSE/LSE: CCL; NYSE: CUK) today announced it is creating a World Cup programming collection for OceanView™, its digital streaming channel. The company's first themed programming collection will feature a curated lineup of episodes from its award-winning Ocean Original programs that showcase Russia and previous World Cup host countries. The episodes are accessible through Oceanview on Roku, Apple TV and Amazon Fire.

Starting June 13, travel and sports fans interested in knowing more about 2018 World Cup host Russia, and previous countries that have hosted the event can explore the themed collection on the OceanView streaming channel to watch episodes from ABC's "Vacation Creation with Tommy Davidson and Andrea Feczko," as well as NBC's "The Voyager with Josh Garcia." Additionally, the collection will include episodes from other Ocean Original programs, "Good Spirits" and "Local Eyes."

The new World Cup collection from OceanView will feature popular ports and destinations in Russia, along with examples of immersive shore excursions that showcase unique experiences and culture across the vast country. In addition to Russia content, the collection will feature previous host countries Italy (1934, 1990), Mexico (1970), France (1938, 1998), Uruguay (1930), Argentina (1978), Sweden (1958) and Spain (1982).

OceanView, which is also accessible on ships from the cruise leader's nine global cruise line brands, is the world's first over the top (OTT) digital streaming channel from a travel provider for completely free access on land and at sea to travel content for viewers across the globe. The original content is part of Carnival Corporation's focus on producing and broadly distributing engaging and compelling experiential content.

Carnival Corporation – the world's largest leisure travel company whose nine iconic cruise brands include Carnival Cruise Line, Cunard, Holland America Line, Princess Cruises and Seabourn – has created eight Ocean Original series, five of which have appeared on network or cable TV in the U.S., and two of which engage the growing Hispanic community in the U.S. These Ocean Original programs are part of the company's focus on expanding awareness of and increasing demand for cruising vacations. Three of its Ocean Original TV programs – "Ocean Treks with Jeff Corwin," "The Voyager with Josh Garcia" and "Vacation Creation" – ranked as number one or two in their time slot during the inaugural season, and were recently honored with 14 Telly Awards.
