

AIDA Ship Visits 2020 – bookings now open

November 13, 2019

Visitors can spend a day sampling an AIDA vacation in the Canaries as well during the 2019/2020 winter season

In the coming months, those interested in a cruise vacation will be able to get a taste of what it's like aboard a total 12 AIDA ships. From November 2019, these ship tours will be available in the Canary Islands. A special highlight will be the newest ship in the fleet, AIDAnova. AIDAnova and AIDAstella will be sailing around the Canary Islands until April 2020, showing off their very best sides to guests on the ship tours.

In addition, from February to October 2020 a large number of ship tours will be on offer at German ports, while in Palma de Mallorca, Spain, visitors will be able to book a tour all year round.

Visitors aboard the ships will once again be offered a richly varied package of experiences. On special Family Days, explorers of all ages will be able to see the diverse areas of the ship and enjoy thrilling entertainment in the Theatrium. Gourmets will love the culinary world tour, and can pamper their palates with an à la carte meal and various tastings. At the Spa Taster day spa lovers will enjoy the heavenly oases on board. Apart from all these adventures, the four-hour guided tour gives visitors a comprehensive insight into everyday life aboard, and they will also get to see the public areas of the ship including the different types of stateroom. Visitors will get a close-up feel for what an AIDA cruise is like. The discovery tour is rounded off with a lunch at one of the buffet restaurants.

On February 29, 2020 in Hamburg, AIDAaura will be the first of seven ships to offer a guided tour in one of three German ports. Other ships that can be booked in Hamburg are AIDAcara, AIDAvita, AIDAluna, AIDAsol, AIDamar and AIDaperla. From March, visitors can tour four different ships in Kiel (AIDAcara, AIDAluna, AIDabella and AIDAprima) while from May, three members of the fleet with the kissing lips will be on show in Rostock/Warnemünde (AIDAaura, AIDAdiva and AIDamar).

A regular ship tour in the Spanish ports costs 29 euros per person. The price in German ports is 49 euros. Children may visit free of charge depending on the experience package.

Guests who book an AIDA cruise within six weeks of taking a ship tour will receive 50 euros of onboard credit as a thank-you, which can be used for extras such as wellness, shore excursions or a romantic dinner. This onboard credit will be extended to new guests and to existing AIDA guests who have not traveled with AIDA in the last five years.
