

Seabourn Posts Record Booking Month for November 2022

December 1, 2022

SEATTLE, December 1, 2022 – Seabourn, the leader in ultra-luxury ocean and expedition travel, reported its best performance for the month of November, booking a record number of guests for 2023 and 2024 sailings. In addition, the company experienced its best one-week booking period for expedition voyages ever since launching its new expedition ship, Seabourn Venture, in July 2022.

Seabourn President Josh Leibowitz noted that the brand tripled the number of bookings achieved during the comparable time-period for 2019 sailings.

According to Leibowitz, the record booking volume indicates a strong demand for ocean and expedition travel, particularly for Seabourn's small ship, ultra-luxury travel experience. "Our teams have done an incredible job telling the Seabourn ocean and expedition story to both guests and travel advisor partners," said Leibowitz. "Our incredible 'This Is Your Moment' campaign has resonated with guests, our onboard teams have consistently delivered unforgettable 'Seabourn Moments' to our guests, and our travel advisor partners have the confidence in us to deliver amazing life-expanding moments to their clients. All of these efforts have led to incredible demand for the Seabourn ultra-luxury travel experience and new booking records, and we look forward to welcoming our guests on board our entire fleet."

Seabourn expects strong demand to continue as the company wraps up its popular "Black Friday Sail™," offering special offers on Seabourn voyages through summer 2024. "The Black Friday Sail" is available through Monday, December 5, 2022, and rates will increase on December 6, 2022.
