

P&O Cruises to host some of the UK's favourite TV talent on 2023 itinerary

January 23, 2023

P&O Cruises has today announced Helen Skelton, Jay Blades and Ross Kemp as the latest additions to the 'P&O Cruises Presents: Sail with the stars' holidays, which showcase celebrated UK stars from a range of popular interests.

The TV Talent cruise, which will be included in the price of the holiday, will take place on board Ventura to Western Europe in May 2023. In addition to the usual breadth of destinations, shore experiences and choice of dining on board, guests will have the opportunity to enjoy insights from behind the camera with Jay Blades of BBC's The Repair Shop, Blue Peter and Countryfile presenter Helen Skelton and actor and documentary maker Ross Kemp.

TV Talent biographies

- Helen Skelton - Helen first appeared on TV screens as a reporter and occasional presenter on the popular Newsround and Sportsround. Her long-standing role on Blue Peter saw her take on incredible challenges, completing the Namibia Ultra Marathon (only the second woman ever to do so), kayaking over 2,018 miles down the Amazon River (breaking two Guinness World Records) and in 2012, travelling 500 miles across Antarctica to the South Pole, becoming the fastest person to travel 100km by ski. Helen worked on the Summer Olympics in London 2012 and Rio 2016 as well as presenting the World Swimming Championships. She has been part of the Countryfile presenting team since 2012, and most recently danced her way to the final of BBC's Strictly Come Dancing 2022.
- Jay Blades - Jay Blades is the nation's favourite furniture upcycler who inspires individuals, companies and charities to transform old furniture into works of contemporary design. Since 2017, Jay has hosted BBC1's heartwarming primetime show The Repair Shop, running for seven series. It follows a workshop filled with expert craftspeople bringing treasured pieces of family history and the memories they hold back to life. In 2021, Jay starred in BBC2's Jay's Yorkshire Workshop. Jay opened the doors to his brand new workshop in Bradford, where members of the public would nominate local heroes from across Yorkshire to receive a handmade, bespoke piece of furniture to acknowledge the work they do for their community.

- Ross Kemp - Ross is a BAFTA award-winning documentary maker, actor, and author, who rose to prominence portraying Grant Mitchell in the BBC1 soap Eastenders. Since 2006 he has received international recognition for his award-winning, exciting and hard-hitting documentaries, including Ross Kemp: Extreme World, Ross Kemp in Afghanistan and Ross Kemp on Gangs.
