

CARNIVAL OPENS 2025 CARNIVAL VENEZIA SAILINGS FROM NEW YORK

December 12, 2023

Guests Also Have More Options Than Ever to Visit Bermuda in 2025

MIAMI, Dec. 12, 2023 – Rounding out the line's 2025-26 deployment schedule, Carnival Cruise Line announced today the opening of a variety of summer and fall 2025 cruises aboard Carnival Venezia from New York. In addition, the line also unveiled its most robust roster of Bermuda cruises on Carnival Venezia, Carnival Pride, Carnival Sunshine and Carnival Spirit.

"Carnival Venezia is a unique ship, and so is her deployment schedule. From weekend getaways to longer Carnival Journeys sailings, our guests sailing on this ship have a range of great options to choose from – with many visits to Bermuda among them. These added sailings are unlocking our richest Bermuda deployment, with more cruises set to call on the popular destination than ever before," said Fred Stein, vice president of revenue planning and deployment for Carnival Cruise Line.

The following is an overview of the new itineraries now open for sale in 2025-26.

Bermuda Cruises

From New York, Carnival Venezia will offer many options to visit Bermuda in 2025. Four-day long weekend getaways departing on Thursdays are available from May through September. Two special five-day cruises in August and October offer the opportunity to spend two days in Bermuda. The new sailings expand upon Carnival Venezia's 2024 Bermuda sailings that include several four- to seven-day itineraries. Seven-day sailings visit Bermuda for three days, while another week-long option includes a visit to Halifax, Nova Scotia in Canada.

Rounding out Carnival's largest upcoming deployment to Bermuda in 2025, seven week-long sailings aboard Carnival Pride departing Baltimore are also available, along with seven six-day cruises on Carnival Sunshine from Norfolk, VA. Additionally, two Carnival Journeys transatlantic cruises, one aboard Carnival Glory and another on Carnival Spirit, depart Barcelona, Spain and visit several popular European ports, then stop in Bermuda before arriving to Florida.
