

Helen Deeble

Independent Director, Carnival Corporation & plc

Helen has served on the Boards of Directors of Carnival Corporation and Carnival plc since 2016. In this role, she serves on the Compensation Committees and Health, Environmental, Safety & Security Committees.

Helen's qualifications to serve on the Boards include more than 30 years of strategic, financial and operational leadership experience in the retail, transport, logistics and travel sectors, including significant maritime experience gained through her service as a chief executive officer of P&O Ferries Division, a pan-European passenger shipping and logistics business.

Helen is also trained and qualified as a certified UK Chartered Accountant. She has served extensively on public company and advisory boards, including many in the maritime and shipping sector, which provides her with additional expertise in corporate governance, the maritime industry, sustainability, supply chain and regulatory matters.
