

Sir Jonathon Band

Independent Director, Carnival Corporation Ltd.

Sir Jonathon has served on the Board of Directors of Carnival Corporation since 2010. In this role, he serves as chair of the company's Health, Environmental, Safety & Security Committee and is also a member of the Nominating & Governance Committee and the Compliance Committee.

Sir Jonathon's qualifications to serve on the Board include his extensive experience in maritime and security matters gained through his 42 years of service with the British Royal Navy (Royal Navy), contributing to expansive understanding of our global operations, physical and technological security considerations, human capital matters, risk management and regulatory landscape. During his time with the Royal Navy, Sir Jonathon served as a naval officer with increasing positions of authority, including as First Sea Lord and Chief of Naval Staff, the most senior officer position in the Royal Navy, a position he held until his retirement in 2009.

After retiring from the Royal Navy, Sir Jonathon embarked on a life of non-executive responsibilities in the commercial and charity sectors. Sir Jonathon's current and previous experience serving on boards of public companies with international operations provides him with deep corporate governance experience in a global context.

Roles & Chronology

2010 – Present	Board of Directors, Carnival Corporation Ltd. (formerly Carnival Corporation)
2010 – 2026	Board of Directors, Carnival plc (until the unification with Carnival Corporation Ltd.)
2006 – 2009	First Sea Lord and Chief of Naval Staff, Royal Navy
2002 – 2006	Admiral and Commander-in-Chief Fleet, Royal Navy
1967 – 2002	Naval Officer (in increasing positions of authority), Royal Navy

Corporate & Charitable Leadership

Sir Jonathon was Chair of Trustees of the National Museum of the Royal Navy and remains a Vice Patron. He is also the President of the Royal Navy and Royal Marine Charity; a Vice Patron of UK Blind Veterans; and President of the 1805 Historical Club, an organization conserving memorials to Georgian naval heroes. Additionally, he is a Patron of the MTB 102 Trust and Southsea Association; a Liveryman and Court Member of the Shipwrights Company; and a Younger Brother of Trinity House. Previously, he also served on the Board of Directors for Harland & Wolff Group Holdings plc, Survitec Group and Lockheed Martin UK Limited.

Among his many accomplishments, Sir Jonathon was awarded the National Maritime Historical Society Distinguished Service Award in 2012 for his contributions to the maritime field.

Personal & Educational Background

Having trained at Britannia Royal Naval College Dartmouth and at sea, Sir Jonathon spent three years at the University of Exeter and is the recipient of honorary doctorates from Exeter and Portsmouth University.